Description

Garbatka Letnisko is a picturesque village on the edge of the Kozienice forest on the Radom - Dęblin railway line , on the Kozienice - Zwoleń road route.

The village is divided by the track into two parts: a forest villa and an economic one. In the economic part, by the main street halfway, lies our property. The house was built in 1988 of red brick lined with polystyrene foam and plastered on the plot of 2000 sq.m. The roof is covered with sheet laid on the bond lined with mineral wool and full boarding. The house has a gas connection, double function cooker and additionally a coal cooker. Water from the waterworks, city sewage system. The property is fenced at the front from the road elegant brick fence style, planting perennial spruces and driveway to the garage and approach to the house paved with paving stones. At the back of the house the rest of the large plot of land to develop, there is a white brick utility room, two storage rooms and a summer kitchen, planting apple trees and conifers. Part of the house ground floor to be renovated especially the bathroom, upstairs to be finished.

Downstairs: hall with stairs to the top, hallway, kitchen with living room, room, pantry, bathroom with toilet, terrace and large balcony from the street.

Upstairs: to be completely finished, there is full installation, two rooms plastered and concrete screed . Upstairs consists of kitchen with dining area , living room , two bedrooms , bathroom , wc , hall to stairs from downstairs and to usable attic and three balconies . A large property centrally located in Garbatka. Needs work in finishing.
